1136-III TITAN

Dining table with or without extension mechanism of glass or natural stone
Design Georg Appeltshauser 2002

An extensible dining table made of glass or natural stone with two swivelling leaves under the main plate. The table can be opened with effortless ease. The rotation of the two leaves is covering 90°. Without extension the top has a soft-square shape. The round or soft-square shaped baseplate is of glass or steel. The base is available in various finishes.
